The poster session, History of Art Libraries in Canada / Histoire des bibliothèques d'art au Canada, presented a new web resource, available at: www.arliscanada.ca/hal.

The website presents "Essays in the History of Art Librarianship in Canada / Essais sur l'histoire de la bibliothéconomie d'art au Canada", contributed by Canadian art librarians across the country. Topics include histories of Canadian art libraries and their collections, new research in subjects such as book illustration and artists' books, a chronology of art library development in Canada, and biographies of pioneers in the field of Canadian art librarianship.

The History of Art Libraries in Canada / Histoire des bibliothèques d'art au Canada is a national project of ARLIS/Canada, sponsored by the National Gallery of Canada Library and Archives, with additional special project funding from an ARLIS/NA. Jo Nordley Beglo, National Gallery of Canada, serves as the national editor, working with regional editors. The ARLIS/Canada website is hosted by James Rout, The Banff Centre for the Arts.
