

COLLABORATIVE COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT AT THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART

Anne Trenholme

Acquisitions and Collection Development Librarian

Ingalls Library, Cleveland Museum of Art

February 6, 2017

OVERVIEW

- About
- New curators, special exhibitions
- Womens Council
- Other ventures

INGALLS LIBRARY

- Established in 1916
- 500,000 volumes
- Serves 15 curators

FISCAL YEAR 2014 DATA

Curatorial Departments	Number of Requests	Total Cost
Photography	90	$6,957.10
Photography (Exhibition)	69	$3,316.54
Indian and Southeast Asian	44	$3,633.64
Contemporary	62	$3,586.08
Total	265	$17,493.36

WOMENS COUNCIL

- Revamped grant allocation process in FY2015
- Library received $15,000 for curatorial requests
- Will begin application process for FY 2018

CURRENT AND FUTURE COLLABORATION

- Chinese language approval plan and new Curator of Chinese Art
- Purchases for special exhibitions
- Purchases for underdeveloped areas of the library's collection (African art, Arts of the Americas)
- Monthly reports on purchase requests
- Pursue ties with other CMA affiliate groups

THANK YOU

atrenholme@clevelandart.org